

3X3 Teen Basketball Tournament

Rules:

1. The initial possession will be decided by "Rock, Paper, Scissors"
2. The game will use the 1 point/2 points scoring method.
3. Games will be played until 1st team reaches 11 points, winning by 2 points. Teams switch off at the end of every round. Winner advances, there will not be a loser bracket.
4. No "make it take". Ball will switch possession every time a bucket is made.
5. Fouls WILL be called by the refs, you cannot SHOOT for possession of the ball. Everything called will be by refs, no self-called fouls. Any non-shooting foul will result in a "check up." Any shooting foul will be automatic points (1 or 2).
6. There WILL be outs
7. Fouls WILL be called by the refs, you cannot SHOOT for possession of the ball. Everything called will be by refs, no self-called fouls. Any foul will result in a "check up".
8. "Check ups". A "checking" system is used to ensure that both teams are ready to begin play. This involves the offensive player saying "check" while throwing the ball to his defender. The defender then makes sure their team is ready and then throws the ball back to begin play. If players don't understand, refs will help.
9. FAILURE to comply with refs will result in a warning, if continuous disruption occurs, players may be potentially banned and taken out of the bracket with NO refund.

***Ties will result in a shoot for the win situation where team with possession shoots if made the opposing team can try and match the point. If not matched, the first team wins. If matched other team gets a chance to shoot once more until winner is decided. (If a tie occurs in the final round next score wins)
